Nomination of candidate for the 3GPP TSG CN WG4 Vice Chairman

Dear Ms. Hughes,
Dear Mr. Kymalainen,

NEC is pleased to nominate Mr. Toshiyuki Tamura (NEC Corporation via TTC) as a candidate for the Vice Chairmanship of the 3GPP TSG CN WG4.

NEC will provide all the necessary support, time, and expense for Mr. Tamura to fulfill his responsibilities as Vice Chairman.

Please find hereafter his curriculum Vitae.

Toshiyuki Tamura graduated from, Electronics Engineering, Kogakuin University, Japan in 1985. Right after that he joined NEC Communication Systems, Ltd. in Japan, he has been engaged in the software development of Analog Cellular MTS system in NEC Communication Systems.

In 1990, he was assigned to NEC America, Inc. in Irving Texas. While he was in United States for three years, he has been engaged in software development of ISDN local switching system.

After he returned back to Japan, he has been engaged in software development of various mobile radio communications systems including IS-41 system and PDC (Personal Digital Cellular) system.

Once 3GPP standardization activity has started, he has joined in the TTC SWG CN in Japan and he has been an active participant in 3GPP TSG CN WG4.

He serves as Leader of TTC SWG CN in Japan and as Vice Chairman of 3GPP TSG CN WG4.

Yours faithfully,
