The Swedish Semla

- Cardamom-spiced wheat bun which has its top cut off, and is then filled with a mix of milk and almond paste, topped with whipped cream. The cut-off top serves as a lid and is dusted with powdered sugar.
- Traditionally eaten only on the day before Lent (the Christian fasting period), semlor are now eaten on a daily basis by enthusiasts nationwide from Christmas until Easter. They are also called Fat Tuesday-buns.
- This year, Fat Tuesday ('Fettisdagen') falls on 17 February.
- You find them in every bakery and café (and supermarkets...)
