Welcome to Sweden

The Olympic Games have just started

Don't be surprised to see Swedes checking scores during coffee breaks

Swedes really enjoy sports — it's part of everyday life

Göteborgsvarvet

Gothenburg hosts the world's largest half marathon

Gothia Cup – the world's largest youth football tournament, uniting young players from more than 70 countries in Gothenburg every summer.

The lovely Swedish Summer and Winter
Although you may only see grey right now

Walking on the icy road :

You do the penguin walk!

There also tools to help ->

Swedish East India Company

The Swedish East India Company, one of Sweden's most successful brands in history, was founded in the year of 1731 in Gothenburg. They traded with China, India and completed 132 voyages in about 80 years.

The replica Götheborg of Sweden: the world's largest ocean-going wooden sailing ship was finished in 2003. In October 2005, it sailed to China according to the original ship's route, arrived in July 2006.

The Swedish Semla

- Cardamom-spiced wheat bun which has its top cut off, and is then filled with a mix of milk and almond paste, topped with whipped cream. The cut-off top serves as a lid and is dusted with powdered sugar.
- Traditionally eaten only on the day before Lent (the Christian fasting period), semlor are now eaten on a daily basis by enthusiasts nationwide from Christmas until Easter. They are also called Fat Tuesday-buns.
- This year, Fat Tuesday ('Fettisdagen') falls on 17 February.
- You find them in every bakery and café (and supermarkets...)
