New EU entry regulations and system

The new Entry/Exit System (EES) will start operations on 12 October 2025. European countries using the EES will introduce the system gradually at their external borders. This means that data collection will be gradually introduced at border crossing points with full implementation by 10 April 2026. For more information – see What does progressive start of the EES mean?

Subway/downtown

How to reach the meeting venue

Prague Public Transit Company (DPP) plans long-term closure of metro station Českomoravská, which was not refurbished since it's opening in 1985. They put together all relevant and important information about your accessibility, you will find all details in attached document. O2 universum remains well connected to public transportation network and once the renovation is finished, metro stop will bring higher comfort for guests and visitors.

Instructions for visitors during closure can be found on <https://www.o2arena.cz/en/information-on-transport-accessibility-in-2025/>, if travelling by metro, easiest way is to leave metro at station Vysocanska and walk 10 minutes

Apart from public transportation, taxis, Uber and Bolt are widely present in Prague.

Subway/downtown

Rest assured that O2 universum will remain easily accessible.

- Tram Stop Directly in Front of O2 universum According to the Prague Public Transit Company, replacement tram services will be introduced, although details are not yet available at the time of this announcement.

The stop directly in front of O2 universum is Aréna Libeň jih (lines 8, 25).

- Metro Although the Českomoravská station will be closed, you can arrive to nearby stations and continue by tram.

Vysočanská station: Continue via tram line 14 or 16 or 10 minutes walk.

Palmovka station: Continue via tram line 8 or 25. 3.

Subway/downtown

➤ Bus

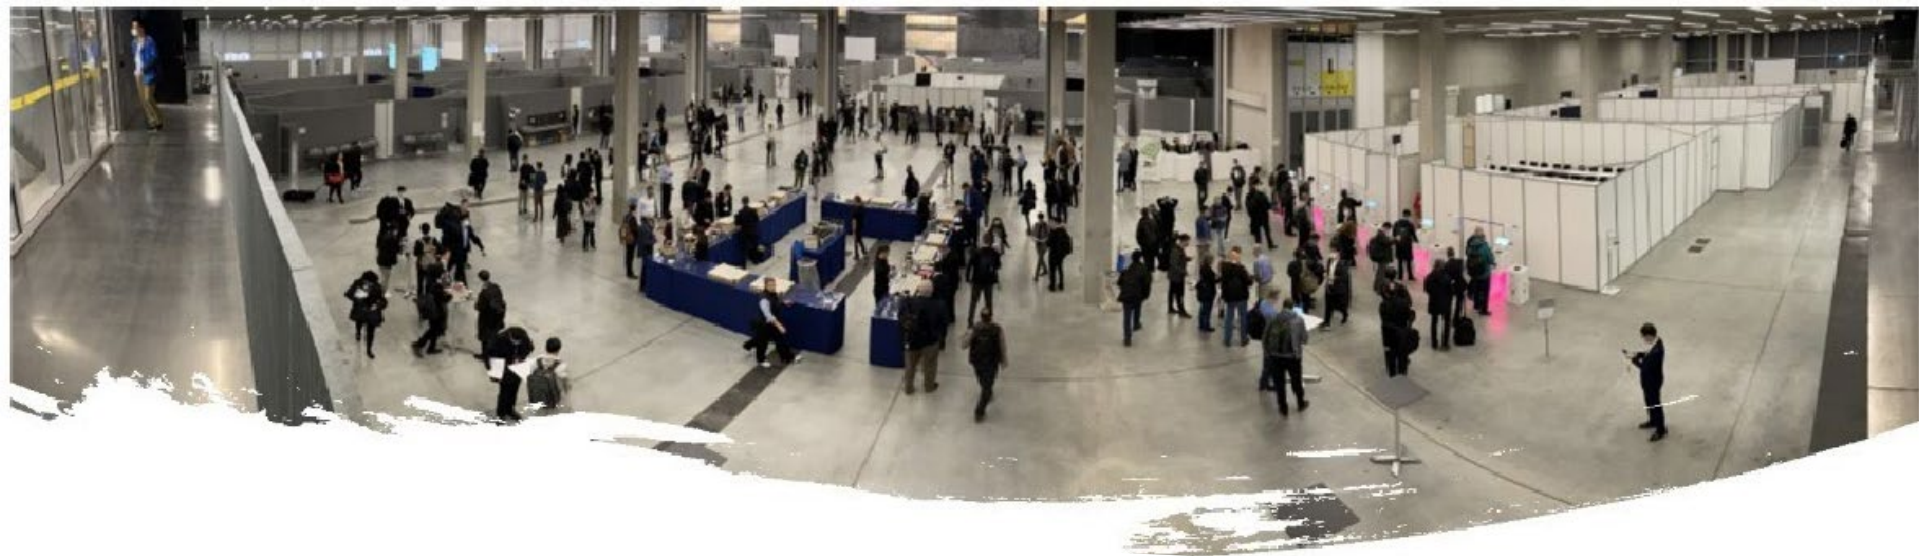

Nádraží Libeň stop: Lines 136, 177, and 195.
