Attention: Agenda item 6

Masami Yabusaki was born in Tokyo, Japan, in 1959. He received the B.S. M.S., Ph.D. degrees in electrical engineering from Waseda University in 1982 1984, and 1993 respectively. He joined Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Corporation (NTT) in 1984. He was engaged in research of on-board baseband switch for an SS-TDMA system during 1984-1987 and development of switch hardware and software for personal digital cellular (PDC) system during 1988-1991. Since then, he has been engaged in the development and standardization of third generation mobile network. Currently, he is the president of DoCoMo Europe S.A. in Paris which is a base of NTT DoCoMo for the third generation system standardization.

Regarding the standardization, he is an authority of network signaling such as CC, MM, ISUP, SCCP, TCAP, MAP, for PDC and INAP, B-ISUP for IMT-2000. He was a chairman of Network Aspect Adhoc group in IMT-2000 Special Working Group of TTC during 1992 – 1997 which has dealt with network architecture, service, security, information flows, and signaling protocols. After a reorganization of the IMT-2000 SWG, he was a chairman of joint WG between ARIB and TTC on radio IF layer 2 &3. He was a member of several committees on telecommunications in the ministry of post and telecommunication (MPT) in Japan. He has served as a head of Japanese delegation to IMT-2000 standardization in ITU-T. He is a rapporteur of ITU-T SG11 Q.23 on IMT-2000 radio access signaling. He participated in several diplomatic dialogues and meetings with other regional bodies such as TIA, T1, TTA, China, and ETSI. In particular, in the past ETSI SMG plenary, he declared the company's policy on behalf of NTT DoCoMo for 3G development and standardization, that is, "W-CDMA+GSM evolved CN". He contributed also to establish the 3GPP as an initial member from TTC. At the first TSG-N meeting, he was appointed as a convener of 3GPP CN-TSG WG2 (MAP,CAMEL,GPRS) .

Attachment – Support letter from NTT DoCoMo

19 February, 1999

Mr. Stephen Hayes
Convenor
Core Network TSG

Dear Mr. Hayes,

This is the official letter to express NTT DoCoMo's support to Dr. Masami Yabusaki who is a candidate for the Vice-Chairman of the Core Network Technical Specification Group.

Dr. Yabusaki has contributed to IMT-2000 standardization activities in ITU-T as a head of Japanese delegation, and is an able expert of international standardization. He was also actively engaged in the 3GPP establishment as a member of TTC. NTT DoCoMo is sure that he will contribute to the work in the Core Network TSG.

Best Regards,

Hideaki Yumiba
