Transportation (1)

- Nanjing has one international airport with direct flights to several overseas cities, such as Frankfurt, Los Angeles, Incheon, Tokyo etc. There are also many transferring-flights from Beijing/Guangzhou/Hong kong etc.
- It has the largest High-speed railway station (Nanjing South Railway Station) in Asia, connecting to Shanghai within 1.5 hours railway range.
- Metro-line S1 connects the international airport and Nanjing South Railway Station within 50 minutes range, easily accessing the Innercity.
- You can easily take taxi or metro almost everywhere in Nanjing Innercity.
- The distance scale in Nanjing Innercity is small, e.g. the distance between two metro-stations are just 1-2km, so your moderate walk/jog can cover sufficient/nice areas around. The taxi in Nanjing looks like:

Transportation (2)

● If you arrive via Nanjing Lukou International Airport, you may:

Opt 1: Take taxi directly to the Inncity/meeting venues with 1 hour + 30$.

Opt 2: Take Metro S1 or Shuttle Bus firstly, then transfer with Metro L1 at Nanjing South Railway Station towards Gulou (Inter-continental@鼓楼) or Xinmofanmalu station (SHANGRI-LA@新模范马路) with 2 hour + 3$.

Opt 3: Any mixed way, "taxi, bus, metros are always not far away from you!"
