ITU-T Study Group 17, Security has adopted the first three of a set of nearly twenty-five ITU-T Recommendations related to Cybersecurity Information Exchange (CYBEX). The overview document (X.1500) is included, as are X.1520 (CVE) and X.1521 (CVSS). In addition, our group has embarked on work toward Continuous security monitoring using CYBEX techniques.

As our work progresses, we expect to engage in continuing collaboration with relevant groups and participants within your organization to collectively bring about, evolve, and implement these essential techniques and capabilities, and to keep you updated.
