General Information for Stay in Taipei

Before arriving at 3GPP SA5#124, there are some important things we need to tell you. Please ensure all attendees from your country are aware of those too.

Currency

Foreign currencies can be exchanged at government-designated banks and hotels. Receipts are given when currency is exchanged, and must be presented in order to exchange unused NT dollars before departure.

The exchange rate to one US dollar is about NTD 30. For different currencies, please visit the Currency Converter at Currency Conversion 1 and Currency Conversion 2.

Major credit cards such as American Express, Master Card, Visa, and Diners Club are accepted and traveler's checks may be cashed at foreign-exchange banks, some tourist-oriented businesses, and (by room guests) most international tourist hotels.

※For further information about New Taiwan Dollar notes, please visit the Central Bank of the Republic of China \(Taiwan\) website.

Weather

In February, the temperature ranges between 12°C (53°F) and 28°C (83°F), and the average temperature is about 18 °C (64°F). Check the weather on <http://www.accuweather.com/en/tw/taipei-city/315078/weather-forecast/315078>

Power Adapter

Electrical sockets (outlets) in Taiwan usually supply electricity at between 110 and 120 volts AC which are very similar to the electrical outlets found in the United States and Canada. If your appliance has a North American plug, it's possible that you won't need any adapter at all in order to plug in there. If your appliance is from another part of the world, and it is built only for 220-240 volt electricity, or a Japanese appliance built for 100 volts, then a travel plug adapter by itself won't be sufficient. The voltage will have to be changed from 110-120 volts at the socket, to whatever voltage your appliance requires.

Travel Insurance

We hope that no one requires medical attention while attending 3GPP SA5#124 but nevertheless we recommend you should be covered by travel insurance for medical situations, as you may find that medical bills are high. Serious medical problems requiring hospitalization can cost tens of thousands of dollars.
