Ms. Hu joined CATT after receiving her M.S. degree from Tsinghua University, Beijing, China in 2001. She is currently a senior member of technical staff and a manager of the standardization group within CATT. Ms. Hu has over ten years of experiences in the telecommunication area, during which she has been actively involved in the design and development of UMTS/HSPA and LTE/LTE-A systems. Ms. Hu attended the Network Vendor InterOperability Testing (NVIOT) forum from 2003 to 2005 and made significant contribution to the completion on the test specifications of Iu/Iub/Uu interfaces and the following LCR TDD end-to-end IOT testing. Since 2005, Ms. Hu has focused on the standardization work both in 3GPP and CCSA, where she serves as the leading RAN3 delegate of CATT. Ms. Hu has been attending 3GPP RAN plenary meetings since 2008. She also served as the rapporteur for the work on LCR TDD HSUPA and mobile relay for E-UTRA, and demonstrated the ability to achieve consensus.
